Description

In very good condition, this tray is also highly unique. It appears to feature the first names of members of the family of Dominique Vieljeux--a family for whom the date of December 11, 2000, held special significance. Genealogical research suggests this refers to Dominique Vieljeux, a graphologist, handwriting expert, and specialist in child psychology. She is also known as an author and an expert on children's drawings. Her siblings and/or cousins included individuals named Isabelle, Nathalie, François, and Florence. Furthermore, the Vieljeux family is best known as a prominent family of shipowners from La Rochelle. As for the date--December 11, 2000--what does it signify? A birthday? A wedding anniversary? While the exact reason remains unknown, it is safe to assume that the
