Description

High-Quality, Untouched Brown Leather Victorian Wing ArmchairThis high-quality, late 19th-century brown leather button-back wing armchair is an excellent example of the George III style. Of substantial proportions, it features a well-shaped frame with a deep, buttoned, tall, contoured back and arms, all retaining the original brown leather upholstery. The armchair offers a host of refined details, including elegant, scroll-shaped arms, a sprung seat with a loose, contoured cushion, and closely set brass studs. It stands on cabriole legs ending in classic pad feet, enhancing its timeless and distinguished appearance. The leather displays a beautiful, untouched color and rich patina developed over many years, contributing both to its character and its comfort.The seat height is 46 cm. Overall, this
