PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Polychrome Majolica Plate - Central Italy, 17th Century

350 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 32

Description

Large polychrome majolica plate - Central Italy, 17th centuryAn interesting large polychrome majolica plate made in Central Italy, dating to the 17th century.The plate features a rich and vibrant floral decoration, characterized by large stylized flowers, tulips, leaves, and sinuous plant motifs, painted in shades of cobalt blue, yellow, orange, and green on a white background.At the center of the composition, within a circular border, is a bird with polychrome plumage, surrounded by elegant floral and plant motifs.The decoration, executed with spontaneous and confident brushstrokes, reflects the vibrancy of the 17th-century Italian ceramic tradition.The reverse is entirely covered in white glaze, with a ring-shaped foot that leaves the terracotta visible.The object shows signs of age, wear on the painted surface, small areas

Dealer

Gabriele e Gionata Retini

Furniture, paintings, sculptures, objets d'art, chandeliers, antiques

Tel : 3395268391

Via Marco Polo 147

Bientina - Pisa 56031

where the glaze is missing, and a visible crack, as documented in the photographs.An interesting example of antique Italian majolica, particularly decorative due to the richness of its composition and the brilliance of its polychrome colors.Place of Manufacture: Central ItalyPeriod: 17th centuryMaterial: Polychrome majolicaDiameter: 32 cmCondition: As shown in the photographs, with signs of age and a crack.