Description

A freestanding mirror made of carved and gilded wood, dating from the late 19th century and crafted in Italy. The frame features double molding with refined leaf and scroll carvings, while the openwork cornice is embellished with floral, leaf, scroll, and curl motifs. These ornamental details continue along the sides and are repeated on the apron and legs, giving the mirror a harmonious and refined appearance. The use of gilded wood not only highlights the handcrafted carvings but also adds a touch of brightness and warmth to the entire piece, making it a versatile and visually striking piece of furniture.Product condition:This product requires restoration and re-polishing due to its age and wear. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
