Description

Pair of Mid-Century-style table lamps - 1960sA refined and evocative pair of table lamps inspired by the Italian and international design trends of the 1960s, an era in which formal experimentation focused on clean lines, functional elegance, and a skillful combination of materials.The bases feature slender, turned, and fluted wooden shafts in a warm amber hue, with an appearance reminiscent of bamboo canes--a decorative element particularly prized in the modernist furnishings of that period. The circular, stepped bases, finished in antique brass, introduce a touch of refined luxury, creating a pleasant contrast with the warmth of the wood.The pleated, truncated-cone lampshades harmoniously complete the composition, casting a soft, diffused light.A pair of great aesthetic balance, an
