Description

This Empire-style secretary desk is crafted from cherry wood with an elm burl veneer on the front. At the top, a belt-style drawer features two beautiful chiseled handles. This piece is characterized by its two columns adorned with chiseled collars in the pure Empire style.The flap, equipped with a key and a functional lock, opens to reveal new green leather, adorned with a gold medallion and a refined central motif. Inside, three large compartments and six small drawers with brass knobs provide ample storage space. The lower section of the piece features a storage area enclosed by two doors; inside, a shelf is adjustable on a rack. The piece rests on tall, slender legs. This cabinet captivates with the elegance of its lines, the quality of its materials, and the subtlety of its details. Its leather, multiple
