Description

A pair of Empire mahogany fauteuils or armchairs 'aux Dauphine' in the manner of Pierre Bellange (1760-1844).

The mahogany frame with sabre front legs continuing as arm supports, the back legs raked.

The arms curved and carved with a mythological dolphin's head at the front and a scale motif at the back. The square back slightly curved, the uprights a continuation of the back legs. The top rail features volutes and guilloche ornament.

Upholstered in an elegant striped moire fabric in reseda green and rose.
