Description

Refined and unique writing desk, finely veneered and inlaid with walnut, walnut burl, and various fruitwoods, in the style of the renowned cabinetmaker Maggiolini. Designed as a freestanding piece, it is finished and inlaid on the back as well, making it suitable for placement in the center of a room. The inlays, executed with extraordinary sophistication, feature geometric motifs and floral garlands, creating evocative plays of light and shadow across the different woods. The piece rests on tapered, truncated-pyramidal legs, a hallmark of the period, and includes seven drawers (one centrally located), ergonomically designed for storage, and
