Description

A Japanese Satsuma ceramic dish, finely decorated in polychrome enamels and gold, depicting an elaborate scene with numerous samurai, signed Gyokuzan. At the centre of the composition, a group of armoured warriors is gathered in a landscape crossed by waterways, among rocks, pine trees and traditional architecture. The figures, depicted in various poses, wear richly decorated garments and armour, embellished with elaborate gilding and intricate ornamental motifs. On the right, a large canopy finely decorated in gold frames part of the scene, while the landscape opens out in the background among trees and rocky outcrops. The surface is further enriched with dense gold stippling. The border features elaborate geometric and floral decoration in shades of gold, red and
