A Collection Of Five 18th-century Wine Glasses

550 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Height : entre 10.5 - 15.5 cm

Description

Set of five 18th-century wine glasses made of clear glass, featuring various bowl and stem shapes. The slightly flared bowls rest on slender stems; some contain an elongated air bubble, while others are adorned with knots or ridges and sit on circular bases.Slight variations in color, small bubbles, and irregularities in the glass give each piece its own unique character. Surface wear is visible, particularly beneath the bases.A decorative set for an antique glassware collection or display in a showcase.Period: 18th century.Height: 10.5 to 15.5 cm.Quantity: five glasses.

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740