Naive Art. " Hotel Invalid". 1940s-1950s. Sign.

600 EUR

Period : 20th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Oil painting
Width : 100 cm
Height : 65 cm

Description

View of the north facade of the Hôtel des Invalides.
The Hôtel des Invalides is a Parisian monument whose construction was ordered by Louis XIV by the royal edict of February 24, 1670, to shelter the invalids of his armies. Today, it still accommodates invalids, but also the Saint-Louis des Invalides cathedral, several museums and a military necropolis with in particular the tomb of Napoleon I.
The painting has been restored by our restorer.
No frame.
Signature to discover, Charles Ulus?
Dimensions 65 cm x 100 cm. 1940s-1950s.

Dealer

Dupire et Kotek
Antiquités, tableaux, arts appliqués, vintage, objets de charme
Tel : 00 32 495 205 344
Mobile : 0032 474 26 22 88

Avenue de Broqueville 34
Bruxelles 1200