Description

Very nice pair of important appliques. Decorated with trimmings Louis XVI, they are decorated with a mascaron with the effigy of Dionysus. 3 branches of light in olive branches complete these sconces. Formerly lit by gas, they were mounted on electricity. The bronze is golden varnished. These sconces are signed Lebrun - Tardieu, 63 rue des archives in Paris. Epoch around 1880. We do not have flames in frosted glass. We can get new ones (same appearance as the old ones). One of the wall lights was formerly welded to the base of the ribbon, it is not visible when they are fixed.
