Description

Superb and elegant bedside table in walnut, Empire period. It rests on a base in half moon, surmounted by 2 columns in frontage and 2 feet on the back the whole connected between them by flying arches. The upper part opens with 2 drawers on the front and the set is topped with an original Saine Anne gray marble. The bases and tops of the columns are decorated with finely chiseled bronzes and the entrances of escutcheon drawers. Superb quality furniture in perfect condition, practical for a living room or between two openings due to its size.
