Description

Two superb lithographs by Urbain HUCHET dating from the 1970s showing views of Paris; one representing the Seine quays at the Pont Neuf and another representing the Saint-Germain des Prés square. HUCHET (Urbain), French painter and engraver, born in Rennes on April 28, 1930. He devotes himself entirely to painting from 1960. In love with Brittany and Paris, he will never stop to travel the world and paint wherever he is. From 1961 to 2000, he participated in more than thirty major exhibitions including New York, Sao Paulo, Paris, Washington, Tokyo, Pont-Aven etc ... But it is in Paris that he realizes the the greatest number of works, and in particular about three hundred editions of lithographs which he himself created on the presses of various workshops.
