Description

Pair of NAPOLEON III furniture at support height in wood veneer, blackened pearwood and tinted wood marquetry. The borders - top, base and sides - are in kingwood and lemon tree fillets. They open to a door centered with a rounded medallion adorned with a bouquet, the corners with garlands of flowers, the headband and the flat uprights inlaid with flowering branches. They rest on a plinth and are decorated with bronzes: moldings, sconces, keyholes... The interior, lined with 2 shelves, is mahogany. Locks and keys in working order.

Period: late 19th century

Very good condition after restoration, stripping and buffer varnish finish in our workshop.
