Description

Regional Sideboard at Support Height, in Solid Cherry with Panels in Solid Elm Burl. It is composed of a large drawer in the belt, assembled in Dovetails. The latter has two Empire brass pull buttons, as well as a period lock entry in the center. Below, this piece of furniture offers two paneled doors with a molded solid cherry frame. They have two entrances with a lock in working order, accompanied by its original key. The front uprights consist of two Half-columns Flanked and Ringed, above and below, with Chiseled Bronzes. The interior offers an interesting storage space, furnished with a 35cm deep shelf, placed on fixed cleats. This Bicentenary Buffet is an example of the successful alliance between Sobriety and Personality.
