Description

Louis Ferdinand Destouches, known as Louis-Ferdinand Céline, born May 27, 1894 in Courbevoie and died July 1, 1961 in Meudon, known by his pen name generally abbreviated as Céline, was a French writer and doctor. Autograph letter signed undated (but known to have been written in 1948), written to his Danish lawyer, master Thorvald Mikkelsen about his French lawyer master Tixier Vignancourt who will obtain his amnesty on April 20, 1951. "....I must notice that your letters to Albert and Tixier are beautifully written! There is irony, kindness, always dignified friendliness. Everything is perfect, Bravo! ... ... Apparently, two mimes exploded in the Star bell! It must be another blow from your serious friend Consette, Admiral! It will never end!" Letter reproduced in Céline's
