Description

oil on canvas in perfect condition in a very contrasting palette. Bordes with his sensitivity gives us a bucolic vision and full of freshness that is not so common in his work. contemporary golden baguette. Leonard Bordes. Paris 1898-Rouen 1969. "Coming from a family of musicians, he is a violinist himself. His landscapes, close to the hushed sensitivity of the Rouen school, also reflect the influence of Utrillo; watercolors and canvases testify to a serene approach to nature with a clear and spontaneous style »Gerald Schurr: Dictionary of Little Masters of painting: 1820-192. Benezit. Dimensions: Width: canvas 54 frame 63 Length: canvas 73 frame 82 cm.
