Description

Small living room table in solid mahogany topped with white Carrara marble slightly veined with black. This is surrounded by an openwork gallery, in finely chiseled brass, embellished with pearls and scalloped in drapery on the inside. The angles of this marble have 2/3 rounded projections and follow the shape of this middle piece of furniture finished on all four sides. On the front, the upper part consists of a drawer lined with a brass ogee molding and an original brass pull button as well. The lower part has a flap simulating two drawers in the same spirit as the one mentioned above. This opening is fitted with a strike lock activated by the button. This small piece of furniture is made up of four legs flanked in the corners by 2/3 roundings made up of four grooves. At the top, a double gradient brass ring surmounts the tapered
