Description

Rare small 19th century occasional piece of furniture in burr walnut and lemon tree fillets. Base with 4 turned wooden columns resting on 2 flared pads, carved with plant motifs and joined by a turned wooden spacer. Drawer in front with its key, under which slides a large tapered locker with its interior sheathed in black velvet. The upper part with flap with key forming a secretary, discovers a lemon tree interior containing 2 drawers and a compartmentalized locker. The seat is sheathed in leather decorated with gilding irons. Ivory drawer knobs. Beautiful condition with its varnished buffer.
