Description

Here is a glassware masterpiece, infrequent because of its size and condition: it is a very large pitcher of about 2.5 liters, very solid, blown glass and tool worked, green color of dark bottle, the thick basement blown into a mold. Beautiful winding handle, edging and weir hemmed, and underlined glass threads in spiral hot turned, traces of pretty bubbles in the glass, and beautiful effects of transparency. Condition: good, no flaw, no cracks, no glare, a glass thread came to stick to the surface behind the handle. (See photo). Large dimensions: 31cm x 15,5cm. Weight, about 1.4kg. Work of the glassworks of Trinquetaille, Arles, eighteenth century, Uncommon object; Two similar to the Arlatan Museum. Colissimo insured shipping from France, Tel: 0665241111
