Description

French Regence style cartel in Boulle marquetry in première partie, with a red tortoise shell background. Architectural shaped case, standing on a base with four flattened balls foliated feet with chiseled motifs on the middle.

On each side a glass shows the inner part of the clock and is framed with water leaves frieze in gilt and chiseled bronze. Other motif in gilt bronze such as flowers, beaded acanthus leaves, mascarons, pelmets, swags and music trophies adorned the case.

On the front, a chariot of Apollo in gilt bronze pulled by two horses adorned the part below the dial.

Four fire pots enhanced the top of the case. A figure of a winged Renomée topped the cartel. Round dial with an embossed gilt bronze
