

Flying Table In Rosewood Veneer, Rosewood, Flower Decor, Eighteenth Time

Price : 4500 €

Signature : J.M.E

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bois de rose, palissandre et bois précieux

Width : 43

Height : 71

Depth : 33

<https://www.proantic.comdisplay.php?id=489108>

Description

Table scallop middle period Louis XV, rosewood veneer and rosewood, opening three drawers, the first has a removable writing tablet sheathed brown leather and lockers. The top is inlaid with flowers knotted by a ribbon knot made of boxwood, amaranth and olive surrounded by a gilded bronze mold. It rests on curved feet ending in a hoof. Eighteenth century.

Dealer

Au Passé Simple

Furniture, paintings, chandeliers, Art objects, Mirrors

Mobile : +33 6.03.48.95.81

Villeurbanne 69100