Description

Sideboard of time ar deco walnut. The krass cabinet is inspired by 3 strong elements: - Egyptian art through the bronzes in the center of the doors. -Art novel through the feet forming columns. -And the sculpture in the center for the discovery of another country until then still unknown or colonized. This row is of temple form with the sober geometric line. The base includes a molding and a pearl pattern louis 16. The box has in the lower part at the end a roll form that inspires parchment connected by a large cross pant pant incline. The doors have a continuity in the vein with the central upright. Lock entries and keys are in bronze. The molding of the tray comes to frame and insert the marble. The side panels are in solid walnut. Inside a hanging drawer and shelf on each side. Delivery
