Description

Louis XIV Dauphinoise commode inlaid with native woods including walnut, yew, elm ... on a frame of fir, the marquetry decorated with geometric motifs framing magnifying veneers, bramble and wire wood. The facade is curved and opens with four drawers in four rows, the upper drawer forming writing tablet with 3 sliding panels discovering lockers, the bottom of drawers are mounted rabbet on all three sides, a characteristic of some workshops Grenoble. The tray is molded of a beak of corbin marrying the sides with a back projection. Beautiful and fine ornamentations of floral marquetry on bottom of walnut in a medallion in the center of the plate as well as on the high and low parts of the previous amounts and the apron. Work of the Dauphiné, Louis XIV. Very good condition, varnish buffer.
