

Plate In Earthenware Mills XVIII Century

580 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Petit morceau recollé sur le bord

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 24,5 cm

<https://www.proantic.com/en/523792-plate-in-earthenware-mills-xviii-century.html>

Description

Beautiful earthenware dish of big fire of round shape with polychrome central decoration in full of a very broad flowery bouquet surrounded by a bird of paradise, straws, insects, buildings and a Chinese smoking his pipe. State: a small piece reassembled and restored on the left edge of the photo Diameter: 24.5 cm Mills mid-eighteenth century Bibliography: CI Ch. Meyer BH Papoulaud the faience of Moulins a tempereemnent of fire. Collection from one look to the other Anne de Beaujeu Museum 2008. Page 138

Dealer

MB ANTIQUE

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 03 53 92 83

Paris 75014