Description

Coffee table model "garrigue", round shape, tray in ceramic tiles decorated with leaves, with a constructivist base in oak. The tiles "Herbier" are made of sandstone "big fire", they are real plants of the south of France which are encrusted in the ground and leave their natural footprint. This technique was invented by Roger Capron.

1960/70 coffee table stamped on the plateau:
Capron Vallauris France. Very good state.

Dimensions: Diameter of the tray without feet:
95cm in diameter and 33cm in height. Diameter of the table with the feet: 107cm
