Description

These two watercolors on paper are signed René Pierre de Olinda, the signature is difficult to read and date back to the 50s.

René Pierre Louis de Olinda born in 1893 in Algiers. He exhibited for the first time in Paris in 1927 at the exhibition of independent artists. His work is mainly focused on Paris and Montmartre. They represent the Place du Tertre in Montmartre, with the original sign "the monkey reading" in the scene. They are made with finesse and beautiful colors, the frame is made of wood. They are sold as is in their juices. For the state thank you to detail the photos. Photos are an integral part of the description.
