

Eighteenth Blown Glass French Bottle - Old Glassware Of East Of France - Folk Art Win

Price : 200 €

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Verre soufflé

Diameter : 9cm

Height : 26,3cm

<https://www.proantic.comdisplay.php?id=531806>

Description

Bottle blown glass, ocher honey color,
18th glassware from east of France.
High collar shape, neck with hot threaded ring.
Bubbles and traces of movement in the glass left by the master glassmaker during the blowing.
Returning bottom with pontil mark.
Aesthetic shape very slightly irregular.
Great lightness in hand.
Good condition, neither fel nor Å©grenure.
Dimensions: 26.3 cm x 9 cm
Weight: 450 gr

3 other similar enough old bottles for sale (see last pictures)

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps

Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity

Tel : 06 81 53 21 70

Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

(Courrier: Samuel Collin - Impasse des Ventes 28500 Mézières en Drouais) Stand d'Exposition aux Puces de
Paris-St Ouen: Marché Paul Bert - Allée 2 - stand 137
Saint-Ouen 93400