

Palanquin, Saddle For Elephant, Howdah

3 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état d'usage, une toupie refaite

Length : 1m60

Height : dossier : 78cm, assise: 49cm

Depth : 74cm

<https://www.proantic.com/en/536388-palanquin-saddle-for-elephant-howdah.html>

Description

Rare palanquin called "Howdah", elephant saddle, formerly used in Asia and India for the transport of wealthy people during hunting parties and wedding ceremonies. Symbol of great wealth the "Howdah" could be carved and sometimes decorated with colorful draperies. This beautiful object is perfectly stable and very strong, it can be used in banquette and be decorated with some cushions. Original carmine red paint, together in good used condition, a top has been redone. Manufacture around 1900 Delivery by carrier, please contact us

Dealer

Le Houppier

sélection d'objets et meubles

Tel : 06 58 93 91 25

39 rue Gabriel Thavenot

Feytiat 87220