Description

We present this beautiful Empire dresser from the early 19th century, with three main drawers and a fourth drawer just below the tray.

Beautiful empire dresser in veneered walnut feathers (note how the flame is drawn on the front and sides with a beautiful play of light and darkness with the knots of the wood).

Two lateral columns with round legs with capitals and bases in gilded bronze. He also pays great attention to gilded bronze nozzles with grape and vine motifs.

At the top corners, two golden bronzes in the shape of a laurel wreath: a sign of strength and victory for the French empire.

And to close the beauty of this piece of furniture:
a shelf Marquina black Spanish marble with beautiful white and gray veins (more recent than

In conclusion: a beautiful chest of drawer, high furnishings, elegant, very strong presence.
