Description

We present this oil on canvas by the landscape painter Francis Muschamp active from 1865 to 1881, father of the painter Francis Sydney Muschamp, signed and completely restored.

It is signed in the lower left corner, coeval and original.

The landscape is created by applying thicker layers and kneaded in the rocks and smoother in the sky or in the water, obtaining a very spontaneous effect and capturing nature in an instant with a very dynamic perspective.

The painting is very rich in colors, the view of a small river with waterfalls in the background, the perspective immediately brings us to the center of the image where the painter played a lot with the sunlight and the reflection of the blue sky reflected in the water, sneaking sneak into the vertical space of the trees where we can admire his dexterity in the details of the branches and leaves.

Looking at the painting from top to bottom, it first transmits the tranquility of the sky, the branches of the trees and the leaves like a curtain for the rapid descent of the water from the waterfalls, finally transmitting calm and beauty nature among the rocks, the water and birds as if it were a bed to rest your eyes.

A quality painting, full of colors and that conveys freshness.

Cleaning and restoration by Mrs. Eva Moreno Serrano, graduated from the University of Seville - Faculty of Fine Arts Santa Isabel of Hungary with specialization in Conservation and Restoration of Paintings and Sculptures, Master in Creation and Communication Cultural Projects of the Chamber of Toledo Trade and European Master in Art, Culture, Conservation and Management of Cultural Heritage.

The paint is in excellent condition, with no scratches or paint leaks.

A technical restoration report is published, detailed with photos, state of conservation before and after restoration.
