Description

Unique large manor table in solid mahogany from the 19th century from England

Beautiful table with exceptional proportions.

Indeed, the table has a width of 1m19. This is very large for a table of this style and makes it unique.

The table also stands out for its superb solid mahogany table top which has a very beautiful original patina.

The height below the belt is 65 cm, which allows you to be comfortably seated at the table.

In perfect condition. superb patina
