Description

Old and Important Antique bronze sculpture signed and dated -1891 - Thiebaut Frères foundry, representing Marianne, allegorical representation of the French Republic. This bronze is specially dedicated to Edouard Fougeirol, vice-industrialist (spinner and miller) (1883-1896), hence the engraving also on the front of the base, and to the mayor of Ollières, who was a representative of the Radical Party in the canton of Privas (Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region). Represented as a young woman with a Phrygian hat, Marianne embodies the French Republic and represents the permanence of the values of the Republic, namely Liberty, Equality, Fraternity. Brand THIEBAUT FRERES 1844-1901 Dimensions: 50 cm high - 22 x 20 cm basic The Thiebaut Brothers foundry was one of
