Description

XIXth century France Lyon (?) Spectacular Door and lambrequin in Lampas embossed red gold and silver probably from a Lyonnaise manufacture dating from the Second French Empire. The resemblance to the lion of the coat of arms of the city of Lyon is striking! Flamboyant Neo-Gothic repertoire with vases, illuminations, Fleur de Lys, Crown, Lions in crimson, bronze and gold colors. Golden cotton sateen lining and matching frayed silk trimmings. Two or three very limited areas of fraying of the silk only on the curtain (difficult to notice), otherwise beautiful colors. Good general condition of color and conservation. Can be sold separately the curtain at 900 euros and the lambrequin at 700 euros. Dimensions: Door Curtain 109 cm wide x 274 cm high. Lambrequin
