Description

Small clock and its two candlesticks, in gilded bronze (and black patina) finely chiseled decorated with a musician cherub on top, enameled dial with Arabic figures surmounted by a vegetable garland, resting on four small feet and pillars, candlesticks with tapered barrels, plant motif, from around 1890 at the end of the 19th century. This clock is in good condition, in its own juice. The movement does not work. We have the key. A note: missing the flute held by the cherub, the two front legs of the clock have been glued, small slot in the bottom of the barrel of a candle holder, the cherub is moving on top, dirt and wear on the gilding (well worn in places), take a good look at the photos (see red arrows). Diameter: dial 4.5 cm Dimensions: 11.5 cm x 8.5 cm clock Height: 20 cm pendulum / 17
