Description

Wooden frame and gilded paste with a throat profile decorated with palmettes joined alternately with hememions and raises de coeur at sight. The Empire style is inseparable from the frames of the same name. Essential for re-framing all the works between 1800 and 1815, the Galerie des Cadres is specialized in this period and offers many formats. We also have a specialty of framing autograph letters and documents old for which authentic frames are precious auxiliaries. Do not hesitate to send us a photo of your subject accompanied by its dimensions, we will always make you proposals in return within the limits of our available stock.
