Description

Beveled mirror decorated with a floral painting from the Gorgio and Irène Silvagni collection. Very beautiful mirror from the beginning of the 20th century decorated with a symmetrical floral painting decorated with Bérain decorations. This polychrome painting was done in two parts: one on a transparent glass fixed above the mirror and the rest of the painting on the mirror itself. This technique, most certainly carried out by Giorgio Silvagni, gives an effect of remarkable depth and makes this mirror a unique piece of its kind which leaves no one indifferent. Note that the silvering is slightly pricked at the bottom on the left.
