Description

Yvon Grac (b1945) French Post Impressionist

The Bouquet c1970

An explosive bouquet of flowers depicted in vibrant colours by the well regarded artist Yvon Grac. Christened by art critics the "Painter of the joy of life and happiness" this painting encapsulates the essence of Grac's technique. He was born in 1945 in Nice and studied at the Municipal Drawing School with Édouard FER. He was co-founded of the "Atelier de Nice". Examples of his work can be found in Museums and galleries throughout France.
