Description

Astonishing table bell in solid silver. Louis XV style engraved body, two views of the village and the seaside in the interlacing. High fretel in the shape of a character that supports an imaginary house or attic, reminiscent of horreos or paneras. A small figure with a burden climbs the stairs, at the ridge a bird posed near a standard. The flag and the clock hands rotate freely. The brass bell is hidden under the bell, it rings perfectly. Total height 16 cm Base diameter 6 cm Gross weight 134 grams Several punches photographed, some very worn, I let you identify them (information welcome). Very good state. Firm price. Payment check or bank transfer. Shipping costs colissimo France 10 euros, other countries contact me.
