Description

Refined shaped flap veneered in rosewood arranged in a herringbone pattern surrounded by dark rosewood. Circa 1860. Interesting measures which make the object very rare: 94 cm high, 60 cm wide and 45 cm deep.

The restorations are processed personally in our laboratory and the polishing is done by hand with the use of real shellac. Contact me for an estimate of shipping costs and for more information and photos. We can send a short video which will let you see the object and the color better.
