Description

Côte d'Azur seascape, near Marseille.
Sitting on the rock, a figure waves to a couple of fishing boats near the shore.

Noël-Sauveur Canepa was born in Bastia (Corsica) on December 1, 1885. He studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Marseille, where he was a pupil of Jean-Frédéric Canepa (1894-1981), probably a family relative but not his brother. Noel Canepa was a painter specializing in Côte d'Azur seascapes, his usual technique being palette knife painting. His works appear in numerous private collections in France and the United States. He died in Marseille on August 13, 1965.
