Description

Beautiful wrought iron object engraved on both sides, split in two to form a flat and long clip, closing with a sliding ring on one or two edges, to ensure maintenance of a light garment, shawl or veil, and attach it. A chain undoubtedly connected it to a belt, as for a dress up ...

It is a mystery object, my interpretation is only the search for a use, there may be others.

Early antique work, eighteenth century, perhaps Persian or Ottoman?

Good condition, nice engraved decoration.

Dimensions: 17cm x 2cm. Take a good look at the photos
