Description

Original console with drawer, Art Deco period (circa: 1930) in brightened wrought iron. In more than 30 years of business, this is the first time that we have found an Art Deco console with a drawer! This is placed in the belt of the console. By its contrast, the blackened wood enhances the Art Deco pattern of the edged wrought iron and gives the most beautiful effect to the whole. The original white-gray-purplish marble breccia top has been restored and reinforced with a glued glass cloth underneath (see photo). The whole is very elegant. The depth of the console (40 cm) makes it easy to put a lamp on it. Visually, the console resting on two thin feet is very airy. A rear crossbar allows it to be easily fixed to the wall.
