Description

Mixed media on paper signed F. FAY (1921-2011), dated 1958 and dedicated. Franck Fay was born in Paris. He moved to Polynesia in 1949 as an abstract painter. In 1960, he created the "Center for Abstract Art in Tahiti, then the French School of the Pacific." In 1964, public commissions such as a mural for the reception hall of the Tahiti airport, aroused the interest of the public and establish its reputation.
