Description

Small Louis XIV ° commode move and inlaid First half of the 18th century Rome, Louis XIV Measures 54 x 32 x 74 Small chest of drawers with three drawers with a moving front and grooved shoulders enriched with lesene. The elegance of this splendid Louis XIV jewel is truly remarkable, perfect in proportions and entirely inlaid with a beautiful set of geometric reserves.
The warm nuances of the precious woods used, arranged in transverse veins with great cabinet expertise, are expertly combined to obtain a beautiful play of colors. The geometric decorations cover the entire surface of the front, sides and plan, and are highlighted by the movements of the structure. The furniture is authentic from the 18th century and has been perfectly polished in our laboratory. (See photos
