Description

Georges Joubin "Woman in an Interior"
Lithograph circa 1940, naturalistic portrait highlighting the physical reality of two women in a simple and poetic vision, where the shapes are clearly outlined and the colors laid flat. Very good edition condition except stained margin, never framed, n° 23/100 prints, signed in pencil in the margin, from "Corner Gallery" in London. Dim. 67 x 50 cm G. Joubin, 1888-1983 Paris, pupil of JP Laurens, G. Ferrier, founding painter of the Montmartre School with Bonnard and Pascin, producing works "plunging into the roots of life", Schurr saying of him "no frills, built by contrasts, oppositions of powerful colors, a force and sculptural volumes, monumental in a stripping that sweeps away all that is not structured". Present in Schurr, Robert,
