130 x 97 cm Jean Miotte is a contemporary French painter. He is known to be a supporter of Informal Art and lyrical abstract painting. By informal art we mean the absence of forms, a break with the relationship to traditional forms and the redefinition of composition. This movement was born in a Europe marked by the post-war period. Miotte's works have been exhibited in museums and galleries all over the world, at the Musée d'Art Moderne de la Ville de Paris, the Guggenheim Museum and the Museum of Modern Art in New York.
