Description

This handle is from the neo-Gothic period, it is riveted on a metal plate, it is reshaped at the level of the decoration of the chimera. A winding with a technical prowess above that comes to form like a trident. A hammering, a beautiful technique, we are there in the neo-Gothic tradition. The handle seems to be in bronze and the plate is more metal. It weighs a significant weight of 2 kilos 200. Note wear and friction, rust. Sold as presented. For the state thank you for detailing the photos. The photos are an integral part of the description.
