Pair Of Louis XVI Period Walls

11 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Description: Chiseled bronze and ground gold. This lovely pair of sconces features a tied ribbon with berries and flowers. The two vegetal sconces carry a counter-cup and a binet decorated with pearls and leaf friezes. We are in the charming elegance of the end of the reign of Louis XVI. A ground gold with matt and shine gives even more volume to this rare luminaire. These sconces have two holes on the plate indicating that they were entered on a woodwork. Characteristic of the Old Regime, note the binet screw with large pitch and a fixing plate of the counter cup cast in one piece and adjusted with a file (pic). If you wish to receive a video of this object in order to better "understand" it, or detailed photos, do not hesitate to ask us. State: Good condition, very shiny ground gold; repair
